exceptionally broad range of service categories and industries, the Sixth Edition reinforces practical management applications through numerous boxed examples, eight up-to-date readings from leading thinkers in the field, and 15 recent cases. For professionals with a career in marketing, service-oriented industries, corporate communication, advertising, and/or public relations.

"... Analyzes key issues in the marketing of services, focusing on the factors that differentiate the task of a services marketer from somebody involved in marketing goods. After defining and conceptualizing the diversity of services, the nature and consequences of core concepts such as intangibility, inseparability, perishability and variability are all addressed within the context of a revised services marketing mix. Particular emphasis is placed on analysing the service encounter and understanding service quality. One whole chapter considers issues in the increasingly important internationalization of services."--Back cover.

Combining conceptual rigor with real-world and practical applications, this combination text/reader/casebook explores both concepts and techniques of marketing for a broad range of service categories and industries.

'Baverstock is to book marketing what Gray is to anatomy; the undisputed champion.' Richard Charin, Executive Director of Bloomsbury Publishing and President Elect of the International Publishers Association Over four editions, Alison Baverstock 's How to Market Books has established itself as the industry standard text on marketing for the publishing industry, and the go-to reference guide for professionals and students alike. With the publishing world changing like never before, and the marketing and selling of content venturing into uncharted technological territory, this much needed new edition seeks to highlight the role of the marketer in this rapidly changing landscape. The new edition is thoroughly updated and offers a radical reworking and reorganisation of the previous edition, suffusing the book with references to online/digital marketing. The book maintains the accessible and supportive style of previous editions but also now offers: a number of new case studies detailed coverage of individual market segments checklists and summaries of key points several new chapters a foreword by Michael J Baker, Professor Emeritus of Marketing, Strathclyde University.
